

Cassandra has been dancing and performing since she was 4. She has studied tap, jazz, ballet, pointe, lyrical and modern. Growing up in the Kansas City area, you could find Cassandra performing at places like Starlight Theatre and Theatre in the Park. Among other musical theatre shows she was part of the nationally recognized cast of Pippin and choreographed many student performances while studying at Wichita State University. Cassandra is also a former Miss America System contestant where she won the best talent award on numerous occasions and over $5,000 in scholarship money. She has performed all across the United States including DisneyWorld, Disneyland and the U.S. Capitol Building. Cassandra and her husband, Aaron, are the proud new parents of their first child, Jackson.