

CrystalRose Stewart began her ballet training at age 12 with Matthew and Sandy Bridwell. During her high school years she trained with Anthony Manescau. After high school Miss Rose moved to Springfield, MO to attend Drury University and dance with Springfield Ballet. Miss Rose graduated with two BAs in Theatre and Arts Administration. After college she went to London and earned an MA in Choreography from Laban Contemporary Dance Conservatory. While in London, she had the opportunity to take ballet classes at the Royal Academy of Dance and The Place and work with many artists through her degree program at Laban. After completing her MA in 2008, CrystalRose moved back to Tulsa and danced with Portico Dans Theatre, Living Water Dance Company and taught at various studios around Tulsa. Miss Rose also taught Performance Art for the Living Arts 2 week summer camp in 2009.