

Amanda Vavra began training in Sapulpa, Oklahoma at the Patti Parish School of Dance. While competing she earned many titles including Teen Miss Dance of Oklahoma 2003 and Miss Dance of Oklahoma 2005 for Dance Masters of America Chapter #27. She graduated magna cum laude with a BA in Dance Performance from Point Park University where she performed works by choreographers such as Lori Stallings, Kiki Lucas, and Ann Reinking. Amanda made her professional debut as Dream Laurey (Oklahoma!) at Discoveryland! in Tulsa. For two years she was featured as a soloist for the Staycee Pearl dance project in Pittsburgh, PA. Amanda has earned teaching honors from National Dance Alliance as both a Top Rookie and Top Veteran Instructor for their summer seasons. She is proud to be back in the community as the head coach of the Sapulpa HS Ping-Ping Dance Team and teaching at both South Tulsa and Owasso Dance Co.
